AG STRANGE REVIEWS COMPLAINTS OF VIOLATIONS OF STATE GUN LAWS IN MONTEVALLO, BIRMINGHAM, MONTGOMERY

(MONTGOMERY) - Attorney General Luther Strange today released a public statement about formal complaints received by his office concerning possible unlawful prohibitions of firearms by Parnell Memorial Library in Montevallo, the Birmingham Shuttlesworth International Airport and Montgomery Regional Airport. After reviewing and investigating the complaints, the Attorney General's Office worked with the library and the airports to achieve compliance with state law.

The result of the Attorney General's investigations are summarized below, along with links to his determinations.

Parnell Memorial Library

The Attorney General's Office reviewed a complaint that Parnell Memorial Library in Montevallo failed to comply with Alabama law because it prohibited firearms at the library. After the Attorney General communicated with Parnell Memorial Library, the signs prohibiting firearms were removed. Because the signs are removed, the Attorney General has determined that no further action is required.

Birmingham Shuttlesworth International Airport

The Attorney General's Office reviewed a complaint that Birmingham Shuttlesworth International Airport failed to comply with Alabama law because it prohibited firearms outside of secured areas of the airport. After the Attorney General communicated with Birmingham Shuttlesworth International Airport, the signs prohibiting firearms outside of secured areas of the airport were removed. Because the signs are removed, the Attorney General has determined that no further action is required.

Montgomery Regional Airport

The Attorney General's Office reviewed a complaint that Montgomery Regional Airport failed to comply with Alabama law because it prohibited firearms outside of secured areas of the airport. After the Attorney General communicated with Montgomery Regional Airport, the airport promised to remove the signs. Because the signs will be removed, the Attorney General has determined that no further action is required.
