

ATTORNEY GENERAL STEVE MARSHALL STATEMENT IN SUPPORT OF NOMINATION OF ANDREW BRASHER FOR U.S. DISTRICT COURT JUDGE FOR MIDDLE DISTRICT OF ALABAMA

(MONTGOMERY) – Alabama Attorney General Steve Marshall issued the following statement in support of President Donald Trump’s nomination of Andrew Brasher to serve as District Judge on the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Alabama.

“Andrew Brasher is abundantly qualified to serve as District Judge for the Middle District of Alabama. His impressive academic credentials are equally matched by a legal resume that leaves no doubt about his ability in the courtroom. From cum laude graduate of Harvard Law School to successfully arguing cases before judges from Alabama’s Supreme Court to the U.S. Supreme Court, Mr. Brasher’s experience would be an asset to the bench. As Solicitor General of Alabama, he has served this State and the Attorney General’s Office with distinction. I fully support his nomination and urge his swift confirmation.”
