PORNOGRAPHY DUE TO INVESTIGATION BY AG CYBERCRIME UNIT

(MONTGOMERY)--Attorney General Steve Marshall announced the arrest on February 8 of a Millbrook man for three counts of possession of child pornography, due to an investigation by the Attorney General's Cybercrime Unit.

Michael Patrick Kaylor, 28, was arrested by Special Agents of the Attorney General's Cybercrime Unit and officers of the Millbrook Police Department, and taken to the Elmore County Jail. Bond was set at $10,000 for each of the three charges.

Specifically, Kaylor is charged in three warrants*, each with one count of violation of Code of Alabama §13A-12-192(B) which is "possession of obscene matter containing visual depiction of persons under 17 years of age involved in obscene acts."

No further information about the investigation or about Kaylor's alleged crimes may be released at this time.

If convicted, Kaylor faces a maximum penalty of one year and one day to 10 years of imprisonment and a fine of up to $15,000 for each of the three counts of possession of child pornography, which is a class C felony. In addition, he would be mandated to comply with the requirements of the Alabama Sex Offender Registration and Community Notification Act.

Warrants are merely accusations. The defendant is presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty.*
